DISCLAIMER AND SIGNATURE
I certify that my answers are true and complete to the best of my knowledge. I understand that false or misleading information in my application may be grounds for future dismissal from the position or withdrawal of mentorship offer. I am willing to provide professional support for the duration of eight weeks. I agree that in mentoring a student, I will not provide any direct financial assistance to the mentee, nor will I mentor the mentee for any reasons other than journalism. I also agree that I am voluntarily providing my time and knowledge to young and underprivileged journalists in developing countries who are passionate about reporting news; therefore, any material offers of any kind made to me by the mentee, college or his/her family will be refused. I agree that I will not engage in any activity which is incompatible with the aims and objectives of the Foundation. I will keep confidential any and all unpublished information made known to me by the mentee or Foundation during the course of the Mentorship and will not publish any reports on the basis of information obtained during the Mentorship, both during and after the completion of the Mentorship, without the Foundation's prior consent. I will provide the Foundation with a copy of all materials prepared during the Mentorship. I hereby assign to the Foundation the total right, title and interest in and to any copyright in any existing or future works or part thereof of whatsoever nature that I, individually or jointly with the mentee(s) have made or created during the eight-week mentorship program for the Foundation only. I agree that my name and affiliation may be used for program promotional purposes.
